

COEUR D'ALENE, IDAHO--(Marketwired - Mar 30, 2017) - Timberline Resources Corp. (OTCQB:TLRS)(TSX VENTURE:TBR) ("Timberline" or the "Company") announced today that due to additional demand, and with approval from the Toronto Venture Exchange, it has increased the amount of its previously announced non-brokered private placement from US$1.75 million to US$2.0 million (the "Increased Offering").

Under the Increased Offering, the Company may issue up to 8 million Units of the Company (the "Units") at a price of US$0.25 per Unit and is offered under Rule 506(c) of Regulation D promulgated by the SEC under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the "Securities Act") solely to persons who qualify as accredited investors. Each Unit consists of one share of common stock of the Company and one common share purchase warrant (each a "Warrant"), with each Warrant exercisable to acquire an additional share of common stock of the Company at a price of US$0.40 per share until January 31, 2020.

Two tranches of the Offering have already closed, and the Company has issued 6,155,000 Units for a total of US$1,538,750. A final tranche is expected to close in April 2017. The Company intends to use the net proceeds of the Increased Offering for property payments, exploration program expenses, and working capital.

The terms of the Increased Offering also include that the Company will use commercially reasonable efforts to prepare and file a registration statement under the Securities Act for resale of the shares of common stock and the shares of common stock underlying the Warrants to the extent allowed by the Securities and Exchange Commission.

The securities offered in the Increased Offering have not been registered under the Securities Act or the securities laws of any state of the United States and may not be offered or sold absent such registration or an applicable exemption from such registration requirements. The Securities may be sold only to "accredited investors" (as defined in Rule 501(a) under Regulation D of the Securities Act), which for natural persons, are investors who meet certain minimum annual income or net worth thresholds. The Securities are being offered in reliance on the exemption from the registration requirements of the Securities Act provided by Rule 506(c) and the Company is not required to comply with specific disclosure requirements that apply to registration under the Securities Act. The United States Securities and Exchange Commission has not passed upon the merits of or given its approval to the Securities, the terms of the offering, or the accuracy or completeness of any offering materials. The Securities are subject to legal restrictions on transfer and resale and investors should not assume they will be able to resell their securities. Investing in the Securities involves risk, and investors should be able to bear the loss of their investment.
