

MAUMEE, Ohio, March 31, 2017 /CNW/ -- The Andersons Inc. (Nasdaq: ANDE) announces today it has completed the sale of its farm center facilities in Florida to Wedgworth's Inc., of Belle Glade, Florida. The plan to sell the Florida locations was first announced by The Andersons on March 6, 2017.

"We believe the sale of these farm centers to Wedgworth's provides the best solution for the operation of these facilities as well as for employees and customers," says Bill Wolf, Plant Nutrient Group president. "The Andersons remains committed to its farm center business and will continue to operate its locations in the Eastern Corn Belt."

The Andersons obtained the farm centers through the acquisitions of Douglass Fertilizer in 2008 and Immokalee Farmers Supply, Inc. in 2011. The Andersons products will continue to be available to customers in the region through a distribution agreement with Wedgworth's.

About The Andersons Inc.

Founded in Maumee, Ohio, in 1947, The Andersons is a diversified company rooted in agriculture conducting business across North America in the grain, ethanol, plant nutrient and rail sectors. For more information, visit The Andersons online at www.andersonsinc.com.

To view the original version on PR Newswire, visit:<http://www.prnewswire.com/news-releases/the-andersons-finalizes-sale-of-farm-center-locations-in-florida-300432822.html>

SOURCE The Andersons Inc.

Contact

John Kraus, Director, Investor Relations, 419-891-6544, John_Kraus@andersonsinc.com