

Archer Daniels Midland Company (NYSE: ADM) has been named to the Forbes 2017 list of America's Best Employers.

Working with online statistics provider Statista, Forbes surveyed 30,000 American employees working for large (more than 5,000 employees in the U.S.) and midsize (between 1,000 and 5,000 employees in the U.S.) employers in 25 different industries. The willingness to recommend one's own employer was considered to be the most important dimension of the assessment. A secondary dimension to the assessment involved asking employees to share their thoughts on good or bad employers in industries besides their own.

"ADM is proud to be recognized as one of America's top employers and a great place to build a career," said ADM Chairman and CEO Juan Luciano. "We are committed to developing talent, encouraging diversity and inclusion throughout our organization, and offering employees the resources and opportunities they need to grow and flourish in their chosen career."

ADM has approximately 32,000 employees around the world. Visit www.adm.com/careers for information on current job openings and careers opportunities at ADM.
