

TORONTO, May 23, 2017 /CNW/ - Orefinders Resources Inc. ("Orefinders" or the "Company") (TSX.V: ORX) is pleased to announce the launch of a series of informative videos called Drill Bits. Drill Bits is produced in-house and is designed to provide a direct communication link between Orefinders management and its shareholders. Management views shareholder communication as a crucial part of its business and is seeking to keep the market fully informed while adding transparency to the Company's operations.

Drill Bits videos can be viewed here: www.orefinders.ca/drill-bits

"We feel that the Drill Bits videos are a low-cost and direct way to communicate with our shareholders. While corporate videos may be common, most are highly produced or paid third-party interviews. Drill Bits videos are delivered to our shareholders without any outside interference or bias. We receive countless calls from both existing and prospective shareholders seeking to learn about Orefinders and we do our best to respond to each one. This Drill Bits series is another tool for us to help respond to some of the questions we receive. We are excited to see how these videos take hold and hope our shareholders see the value in this platform," said Stephen Stewart, Orefinders Chief Executive Officer.

About Drill Bits
