

Gen III Oil Corp. Announces Off-Take Marketing Agreement Letter of Intent With Elbow River Marketing Ltd. for 100% of Bowden Refinery Production

19.06.2017 | Marketwired

VANCOUVER, Jun 19, 2017 - Gen III Oil Corp. ("Gen III" or the "Company") (TSX VENTURE:GIII) is pleased to announce the signing of a Letter of Intent ("LOI") with Elbow River Marketing Ltd. ("Elbow River"), a wholly owned subsidiary of Parkland Fuel Corporation ("PFC"), for a five-year off-take marketing agreement for 100% of Gen III's finished products from our first Gen III re-refinery (the "Plant") to be constructed on PFC's Bowden, Alberta distribution and storage facility.

"We are proud to enter into this agreement with Elbow River as their reputation, expertise and stature in the lubricant, marketing and distribution industry in North America assure ourselves and our shareholders the long-range security that our high-quality base oils will be marketed by a premier corporation that will see us realize maximum value for our products," said Company CEO Greg Clarke.

The parties anticipate to have the definitive agreement executed by the end of the month.

About Elbow River Marketing, Ltd.

Elbow River acts as an intermediary in a variety of fuels markets across all of North America, bringing buyers and sellers together, as well as providing logistical services to facilitate delivery of a variety of energy products from the buyer to the seller. Elbow River is ideally positioned to capture maximum value available to Gen III once the Plant achieves operational status. Elbow River is a wholly owned subsidiary of PFC, an approximately C$3B public corporation traded on the Toronto Stock Exchange under the symbol PKI.
