

LOS ANGELES, CA / ACCESSWIRE / August 01, 2017 / LD Micro is pleased to announce that the LD Micro Index is being reconstituted as of August 1, 2017.

We believe that the existence of a true micro-cap index, with an average market capitalization of approximately 150 million dollars, is the ideal benchmark for fund managers targeting the space.

"We started the year with 996 companies in the index; with this reconstitution we will have 934. There was a healthy amount of acquisition activity in the previous six months, with a number of companies being removed as they no longer fall within our market capitalization spectrum" said David Scher, Head of Business Development.

A breakdown by exchange, sector, and complete constituent list is available at our website: <http://www.ldmicro.com/the-index>. The criteria for inclusion in the index remains unchanged.

Chris Lahiji, President of LD Micro, stated "LD Micro has always been a champion of micro-cap companies and will continue to do so through our various platforms in order to help both companies and investors in their respective endeavors."

About LD Micro:

LD Micro exists to better the microcap universe, by connecting investors and companies.

LD Micro was founded in 2006 with the sole purpose of being an independent resource in the microcap space. What started out as a newsletter highlighting unique companies has transformed into an event platform hosting several influential conferences annually (Invitational, Summit, and Main Event).

In 2015, LDM launched the first pure microcap index (the LDMi) to exclusively provide intraday information on the entire sector. LD will continue to provide valuable tools for the benefit of everyone in the small and microcap universe.
