"In the second quarter we delivered record quarterly revenue and strengthened our cash position. This was on the back of an expanded rig fleet and new commitments from both existing and new customers," said Dave Harper, CEO of Geodrill.

"Importantly, we were awarded our first underground contract with well-established global gold miner Kinross, signifying a natural extension of our platform of capabilities. We remain committed to maintaining our strategy of providing gold-standard customer service with our fleet of highly-efficient, well-maintained rigs, positioning Geodrill to continue to deliver consistently strong results and industry-leading performance throughout 2017 and beyond."

Non-IFRS Measures

EBITDA is defined as Earnings before Interest, Taxes, Depreciation and Amortization and is used as a measure of financial performance. The Company believes EBITDA is useful to investors because it is frequently used by securities analysts, investors and other interested parties to evaluate companies in the industry. However, EBITDA is not a measure recognized by IFRS and does not have a standardized meaning prescribed by IFRS. EBITDA should not be viewed in isolation and does not purport to be an alternative to net income or gross profit as an indicator of operating performance or cash flows from operating activities as a measure of liquidity. EBITDA does not have a standardized meaning prescribed by IFRS and therefore may not be comparable to similarly titled measures presented by other publicly traded companies, and EBITDA should not be construed as an alternative to other financial measures determined in accordance with IFRS.

Additionally, EBITDA is not intended to be a measure of free cash flow for management's discretionary use, as it does not consider certain cash requirements such as capital expenditures, contractual commitments, interest payments, tax payments and debt service requirements. Please see the Company's MD&A for the three and six month periods ended June 30, 2017 for the EBITDA reconciliation.
