

Archer Daniels Midland Company (NYSE: ADM) today announced the appointment of Rachel D. Hudson to the position of vice president and treasurer. In this role, she will oversee all treasury activities globally, including funding and capital markets, currency risk-management and worldwide banking activities.

Hudson joined ADM in 2002 and has held leadership positions in the company's finance, treasury and commodity-trading functions in the U.S., Brazil, Germany and Switzerland. In addition to her treasury role, she will continue to serve as chief financial officer for the company's Corn division.

Previously, she was chief financial officer for the company's South American businesses. Based in São Paulo, she oversaw finance, treasury, credit, controlling, IT, shared services, and commodity trade execution and administration for the region.

Hudson holds a bachelor's degree from Colgate University and a master's degree in International Law and Diplomacy with a concentration in finance and banking from The Fletcher School of Law and Diplomacy at Tufts University in Medford, Massachusetts.

About ADM

For more than a century, the people of Archer Daniels Midland Company (NYSE: ADM) have transformed crops into products that serve the vital needs of a growing world. Today, we're one of the world's largest agricultural processors and food ingredient providers, with approximately 32,000 employees serving customers in more than 160 countries. With a global value chain that includes approximately 500 crop procurement locations, 250 ingredient manufacturing facilities, 38 innovation centers and the world's premier crop transportation network, we connect the harvest to the home, making products for food, animal feed, industrial and energy uses. Learn more at www.adm.com.

View source version on businesswire.com: <http://www.businesswire.com/news/home/20170825005288/en/>

Contact

Archer Daniels Midland Company
Media Relations
Jackie Anderson
media@adm.com
312-634-8484