Henderson, Feb. 9, 2018 - AIM Exploration (OTC Pink: AEXE) (the "Company"), an SEC reporting public company listed as OTC PINK: AEXE, announces elevated level of interest of our Anthracite Coal.

Aim exploration is pleased to announce its activity in the global marketplace. The company has been an active broadcaster of global market trends on our Twitter feed and we have been indexed as a source for anthracite news and have been seen on Google news webpages.

One request in particular was for anthracite from Poland for a recurring 30,000 Metric Tonne order per month. The price of Anthracite on Alibaba ranges from $100 to $400 per metric ton. The Company is communicating with that client.

Since our alert on the discovery of rare earth elements being found in anthracite, we have received two requests for quotations on purchasing large amounts of our anthracite.
