

Tahoe Reports Labor Strike at La Arena Mine

23.04.2018 | CNW

VANCOUVER, April 22, 2018 /CNW/ - Tahoe Resources Inc. ("Tahoe" or the "Company") (TSX: THO, NYSE: TAHO) reports a labor strike at its La Arena mine in Peru, which started on Friday, April 20 at 5pm CT. The Company is currently in an active collective bargaining period with the La Arena Union which occurs annually. The Union represents approximately 65% of the total workforce at La Arena. The Company recently paid the workers its annual profit sharing as defined by Peruvian Labor Law. Profit sharing is paid by all mines in Peru in strict accordance with the Labor Law. However, the La Arena Union has indicated that they want to be compensated a higher amount of profit sharing than has been established in the Labor Law.

The Company is in active dialogue with the La Arena Union and is looking forward to achieving a mutually-agreeable solution in the near-term. In the meantime, not all employees are participating in the strike and production is not currently expected to be materially and adversely impacted. The Company will provide notice once an agreement is reached.
