"Continental is excited to have an accomplished woman in Shelly Lambertz joining its Board of Directors," said Director John T. McNabb II, head of the Board's Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee. "She brings significant financial and management experience, and a breadth of knowledge about the company and its operations. As the first woman to serve on Continental's Board, she will provide a fresh perspective and her insight will serve the company well going forward."

Ms. Lambertz is the Chief Operating Officer of Hamm Capital. Her role includes overseeing investments and assisting in the management of private companies. She also serves as a director of The Harold Hamm Foundation.
