Mr. Philip Williams, who was newly elected to the Board of Directors of Cobalt 27, brings more than 15 years of mining industry experience. His diverse work experience includes roles in corporate development, as a sell-side research analyst and investment banking management and most recently as managing director of investment banking focused on the metals and mining sector. In these roles, he focused a significant amount of time on the exploration industry.

As a research analyst at Westwind Partners, Mr. Williams worked with a team that covered a range of commodities including precious and base metals, diamonds and uranium. In late 2008, he joined Pinetree Capital, a natural resource focused investment fund, in the role of VP Business Development. During his time there, he was responsible for analyzing and monitoring investment opportunities and was also appointed to the board of directors of several investee companies. In 2012, he joined Dundee Capital Markets (formerly Eight Capital) in the investment banking group. As a Managing Director, he successfully completed equity financings for a range of commodities and was a named advisor on multiple M&A transactions. Mr. Williams is a Chartered Financial Analyst and holds a Bachelor of Commerce Degree.

At the Annual General and Special Meeting, the shareholders of the Company also approved: (i) the appointment of KPMG LLP as auditors and authorized the directors to fix their remuneration; (ii) authorized the omnibus long-term incentive plan of the Company; and (iii) authorized the amended and restated articles of the Company as set out in the Company's Information Circular.
