

One Eleven Cannabis's Saskatchewan Marijuana Growing Facility Development Update

10.09.2018 | The Newswire

September 10, 2018 / TheNewswire / Calgary, Alberta - Cerus Energy Group Ltd. TSX-V: CEA ("Cerus" or "the Company") would like to provide a project update, pursuant to the company's new release on August 28, 2018, regarding the start of heavy construction operations at One Eleven Cannabis Inc's ("One Eleven") marijuana development near Wynyard, Saskatchewan.

One Eleven has completed the heavy construction phase, which was comprised of land location and access roads, in preparation for the construction of One Eleven's 20,000 square foot marijuana growing facility. It is the intent of the Company to initiate the construction and erecting of the facility structure later this week.

R. Mackenzie Loree, Cerus CEO, stated:

"We are impressed with the efficiency and professionalism of the One Eleven team, and their construction crews. Due to the quick completion of heavy construction, the team has aggressively advanced the construction's scheduling. Great work by the One Eleven team!"
