About Spruce Ridge Resources

Spruce Ridge Resources has a 100% interest intheGreat Burnt Copper/Gold Property in Central Newfoundland which covers a seriesof copper ± gold rich VMS deposits including the Great Burnt Main Deposit.Potentialhigh-grade starter pit identified with 237,000 tonnes at 2.51% copper(undiluted) at the Great Burnt Zone. Management considers that an open pit with processing at a customfacility should have low capex requirements.It also has an option to earn up to 37.5%interest in the Crawford property which is 17 kilometers north of the KiddCreek zinc-copper-silver mine.Combinedgeological and geophysical data confirmed the favourable interpretation of theultramafic-mafic intrusive complex as a target for nickel mineralization, aswell as highlighting VMS-type targets elsewhere on the Crawford property.

It also has a 50% joint venture with AmericasSilver Corporation on property that contains tailings with low grade gold andsilver from the Drumlummon Mine in Montana and an agreement with AnacondaMining whereby Anaconda acquired from Spruce Ridge the Viking and Kramer gold propertiesin northwestern Newfoundland.The Vikingproperty is host to the Thor Deposit which has combined Indicated and Inferredresources totaling 83,000 ounces of gold at an average grade of 2.09 and 1.79g/t Au respectively at a 1.0 g/t Au cutoff.

The foregoing information may contain forward-looking statements relating to the future performance of SpruceRidge Resources Ltd. The Company cautions readers that forward-looking information is based on certain assumptions and risk factors that could cause actual results to differ materially from the expectations of the Company included in this news release. This news release includes certain "forward-looking statements", which often, but not always, can be identified by the use of words such as "believes", "anticipates", "expects", "estimates", "may", "could", "would", "will", or "plan". These statements are based on information currently available to the Company and the Company provides no assurance that actual results will meet management's expectations. Forward-looking statements include estimates and statements with respect to the Company's future plans, objectives or goals, to the effect that the Company or management expects a stated condition or result to occur. Since forward-looking statements are based on assumptions and address future events and conditions, by their very nature they involve inherent risks and uncertainties. Actual results relating to, among other things, results of exploration, metallurgical processing, project development, reclamation and capital costs of the Company's mineral properties, and the Company's financial condition and prospects, could differ materially from those currently anticipated in such statements for many reasons such as, but are not limited to: failure to identify mineral resources; failure to convert estimated mineral resources to reserves; the preliminary nature of metallurgical test results; delays in obtaining or failures to obtain required governmental, environmental or other project approvals; political risks; uncertainties relating to the availability and costs of financing needed in the future; changes in equity markets, inflation, changes in exchange rates; fluctuations in commodity prices; delays in the development of projects; capital and operating costs varying significantly from estimates and the other risks involved in the mineral exploration and development industry; and those risks set out in the Company's public documents filed on SEDAR. This list is not exhaustive of the factors that may affect any of the Company's forward-looking statements. These and other factors should be considered carefully and readers should not place undue reliance on the Company's forward-looking statements. Although the Company believes that the assumptions and factors used in preparing the forward-looking information in this news release are reasonable, undue reliance should not be placed on such information, which only applies as of the date of this news release, and no assurance can be given that such events will occur in the disclosed time frames or at all. The Company disclaims any intention or obligation to update or revise any forward-looking information, whether as a result of new information, future events or otherwise, other than as required by law.
