27.03.2019 | GlobeNewswire

TORONTO, March 27, 2019 - Western Troy Capital Resources (TSX Venture: WRY) ("Western Troy") announced today that it is postponing the previously announced schedule for its regular Annual General Meeting ("AGM") of shareholders. When a firm date is set for the AGM, Western Troy will announce the new schedule.

Western Troy's CEO, Rex Loesby, commented, "As outlined in our press release of February 26, 2019, we are in the process of working to complete a reverse takeover transaction ("RTO") with Cultivation Technologies, Inc. ("CTI"). As outlined in that press release, completion of the RTO is subject to a number of conditions that have proven to be more time consuming than first thought. We remain confident that the RTO with CTI is a very attractive transaction for our shareholders and will be working with CTI to complete the RTO as soon as possible."
