

Royal Gold Announces Future Leadership Transition

01.05.2019 | Business Wire

Royal Gold Inc. (NASDAQ: RGLD) (“Royal Gold” or the “Company,” “we” or “our”) announces that Tony Jensen, President and Chief Executive Officer, has advised the Company’s Board of Directors that he plans to retire by the end of the first calendar quarter of 2020.

Mr. Jensen joined Royal Gold as its President and Chief Operating Officer in 2003, was elected a director in 2004, and has served as President and Chief Executive Officer since 2006. During his tenure, he has led the company to a 13-fold increase in market valuation as well as an 8.5% and 16.5% compounded annual growth rate in share price appreciation and dividends paid, respectively.

Mr. Jensen expects to devote the bulk of his retirement time to his family and personal interests including various educational and non-profit organizations. “After 35 years pursuing an immensely gratifying career in the mining business, I look forward to time with my family and focusing energy on supporting others,” stated Mr. Jensen. “I am proud of all that we have accomplished creating real value for Royal Gold shareholders. I have total confidence that the management team will continue to grow the Company’s value based on the solid foundation that has been built over Royal Gold’s first 38 years.”

“Tony has made extraordinary contributions to Royal Gold during his tenure, including building an exceptional, well-respected management team,” said Bill Hayes, Chairman. “On behalf of the Board of Directors, while we will be sorry to see him step down as CEO, we respect Tony’s personal decision and appreciate that he has given us sufficient advance notice to enable us to appoint the best-qualified successor to lead the Company into the future.”

The Royal Gold Board of Directors has appointed its Compensation, Nominating and Governance Committee to manage the process of identifying Mr. Jensen’s successor.
