

African Gold Group Appoints Epoch Resources to Undertake the Feasibility Study of the Tailings Storage Facility and Appoints a New Director

22.10.2019 | GlobeNewswire

TORONTO, Oct. 22, 2019 - African Gold Group Inc. (TSX-V: AGG) (“AGG” or the “Company”) is pleased to announce that it has contracted a leading professional service provider to oversee a critical part of its infrastructure design. SENET, our engineering, procurement and construction company managing the definitive feasibility study for AGG, has contracted Epoch Resources (Pty) Ltd (“Epoch”), a leading professional service provider in the areas of mining infrastructure design, to undertake the Feasibility Study of the Company’s tailings storage facility at the Kobada project.

Epoch is a South African based company with extensive design, project execution and ongoing monitoring/inspection of tailings storage facilities (“TSFs”) within Africa and particularly in West Africa. “In this project we will continue our long-term synergy and working relationship with SENET and deliver a highly successful project for AGG,” said Dr. George Papageorgiou, Director of Epoch.

“I have personally worked with Epoch on a number of projects for TSF design and I am looking forwards to working with them once again,” says Danny Callow, the Company’s Chief Operating Officer. “With a number of recent TSF failures in many parts of the world, this is a critical part of the infrastructure design, and we are pleased that Epoch are on board with us.”

Director Appointment

The Company is pleased to announce that Ryan Ptolemy, the Company’s Chief Financial Officer, has been appointed as a director of the Company. Mr. Ptolemy is a CPA, CGA and CFA charter holder and obtained a B.A. from Western University. He serves as CFO and director to a number of public and private companies in the mining sector.
