"A visit to the grocery store will reinforce the essential role Nutrien plays to support farmers to ensure food is on the shelves this fall and beyond," says Chuck Magro, Nutrien President and CEO. "What we do is essential, and our commitment is to feed the world safely and sustainably. The ESG report is the next step in our sustainability leadership journey to inform our stakeholders globally. We are bringing climate-smart solutions to farmers around the world to feed more people and protect the planet."

This ESG report replaces previous annual sustainability reporting and will be a valuable tool for investors and stakeholders to review Nutrien's key material ESG topics, opportunities and performance. With over 5,000 acres of projects focused on nitrogen use reduction, 25 percent of leadership positions held by women, and 1,200 employees taking online training for cybersecurity risks, there are plenty of ESG highlights on our Fact Sheet at https://www.nutrien.com/sites/default/files/uploads/2020-04/Nutrien_ESG_Fact_Sheet.pdf.

Within this report the company has introduced Sustainable Accounting Standards Board (SASB) and Task Force on Climate-Related Disclosures (TCFD) disclosure and continues referencing the Global Reporting Initiative (GRI). Historical data performance metrics and disclosure for 2018 and 2019 are also available online in our data tool at <https://www.nutrien.com/sustainability/esg-portal/esg-interactive-data-tool>.
