EnerCom hosts its 25th annual The Oil & Gas Conference in an innovative hybrid format
Limited in-person attendance in Denver, Dallas, Houston, and Calgary
Virtual attendance open to registrants globally

DENVER, June 24, 2020 - EnerCom, Inc. is pleased to announce that registration is open for the 25th annual edition of The Oil & Gas Conference® August 17th to the 19th, 2020. This year's event will be held in a hybrid format, allowing for in-person attendance in Denver, Dallas, Houston, and Calgary, as well as virtual attendance globally.

Buyside investors and oil and gas company professionals may register for the event through the conference website.

Health and Safety: EnerCom remains focused on the health and safety of our attendees, presenters, sponsors and staff. This year's conference will be held in a hybrid format allowing everyone attending in-person to maintain a safe distance from other attendees. The bulk of attendees will be able to participate in the conference virtually further protecting the health of those involved in the event.

Conference Details: The Oil & Gas Conference® 25 offers investment professionals the opportunity to listen to senior management teams in the oil and gas industry present operational and financial strategies and to gain exposure to important energy trends affecting the global oil and gas industry.

Public and Private Company Presenters: The 2020 edition of EnerCom's The Oil & Gas Conference® will feature public and private oil and gas companies with operations around the world including the U.S. shale basins, the Gulf of Mexico and Canadian oil and gas companies. Presenting companies will be provided on the conference website at a future date and updated periodically.

Additional Speakers: Global energy industry leaders, economists, market strategists, government officials and other energy experts will provide their insights on global commodities markets, ESG policy and reporting, exports of crude oil and natural gas, energy supply and logistics, and capital sources for energy development.

Who Attends the Conference: More than 2,000 institutional, private equity and hedge fund investors, energy research analysts, retail brokers, trust officers, high net worth investors, investment bankers and energy industry professionals gather for the conference.

One-on-One Meetings: EnerCom works in advance with presenting company management teams to arrange one-on-one meetings with the attending institutional investors and research analysts at the conference venue. Traditionally, EnerCom arranges and manages more than 2,000 one-on-one meeting requests. Registered buy- and sell-side attendees will be able to schedule meetings with presenting management teams in-person and online as appropriate.

How to Register: Investment professionals and oil and gas companies can register for the event through the conference website.

EnerCom History and Sponsors: EnerCom (Energy Communications) has a rich history of working with clients to differentiate and deliver targeted messages to investors. EnerCom, Inc. founded The Oil & Gas Conference® in 1996 with this goal in mind.

Global sponsors of EnerCom's conferences are Netherland, Sewell & Associates; and Moss Adams, LLP. Additional sponsors of The Oil & Gas Conference® 25 include Enverus; CAC Specialty; Haynes and Boone, LLP; PNC; and Bank of America.
