Cornerstone Corrects False & Misleading Statements by SolGold

16.10.2020 | GlobeNewswire

OTTAWA, Oct. 16, 2020 - Cornerstone Capital Resources Inc. ("Cornerstone" or "the Company") (TSXV:CGP) (Frankfurt:GWN) (Berlin:GWN) (OTC:CTNXF) rebuts certain inaccurate statements made by SolGold plc ("SolGold") in its October 16 news release commenting on its failed hostile bid to acquire Cornerstone.

SolGold states in its October 16 news release " Cornerstone may not use its interest in ENSA directly or indirectly to secure debt funding without SolGold's consent and SolGold holds a pre-emptive right to approve or disapprove of any dealings of Cornerstone in its direct or indirect interest in ENSA. "

This is false and misleading. Pursuant to the Cascabel Earn-in Agreement, (1) no party may grant security over or otherwise encumber its participating interest, except to the extent necessary to secure financing of its proportionate share of project development; and (2) no one has a right of first refusal (ROFR) over a sale or change of control of Cornerstone, the listed company in Canada.

Greg Chamandy, Chairman of Cornerstone's Board of Directors and a holder of over 10% of the outstanding Cornerstone common shares, said:

" Following the embarrassing hostile attempt by SolGold, that was 100% certain to fail even before it was formally launched, it is not a surprise that the SolGold Board continues to repeat false and misleading statements in an attempt to hide their incompetence. SolGold's suspect corporate governance, self-dealing practises and waste of significant resources simply confirm that the SolGold Board is incapable of managing the affairs of SolGold for the benefit of all shareholders in a prudent and transparent manner. Cornerstone will provide an update on our intention to requisition a general meeting of shareholders of SolGold in due course."
