

Copper Mountain Mining Announces Director Resignation

05.11.2020 | CNW

VANCOUVER, Nov. 5, 2020 - Copper Mountain Mining Corp. (TSX: CMMC) (ASX: C6C) (the "Company" or "Copper Mountain") announces that Alistair Cowden has resigned from the Board of Directors of the Company so that he can focus his efforts on other professional commitments and duties in Australia.

"I would like to thank Alistair for his contribution to the Company," commented Bruce Aunger, Copper Mountain's Chairman. "Alistair has been a valuable member of the Board as the former Managing Director of Altona Mining, which we acquired in early 2018. We wish him well on his future endeavours. Our Board remains well balanced with the recent appointment of Peter Sullivan and his extensive corporate strategy and mining experience in Australia."

About Copper Mountain Mining Corporation

Cautionary Note Regarding Forward-Looking Statements

This news release may contain forward-looking statements and forward-looking information (together, "forward-looking statements") within the meaning of applicable securities laws. All statements, other than statements of historical facts, are forward-looking statements. Generally, forward-looking statements can be identified by the use of terminology such as "plans", "expects", "estimates", "intends", "anticipates", "believes" or variations of such words, or statements that certain actions, events or results "may", "could", "would", "might", "occur" or "be achieved". Forward-looking statements involve risks, uncertainties and other factors that could cause actual results, performance and opportunities to differ materially from those implied by such forward-looking statements. Factors that could cause actual results to differ materially from these forward-looking statements include the successful exploration of the Company's properties in Canada and Australia, the reliability of the historical data referenced in this press release and risks set out in Copper Mountain's public documents, including in each management discussion and analysis, filed on SEDAR at www.sedar.com. Although Copper Mountain believes that the information and assumptions used in preparing the forward-looking statements are reasonable, undue reliance should not be placed on these statements, which only apply as of the date of this news release, and no assurance can be given that such events will occur in the disclosed time frames or at all. Except where required by applicable law, Copper Mountain disclaims any intention or obligation to update or revise any forward-looking statement, whether as a result of new information, future events or otherwise.
