About Aurania

Aurania is a mineral exploration company engaged in the identification, evaluation, acquisition and exploration of mineral property interests, with a focus on precious metals and copper in South America. Its flagship asset, The Lost Cities - Cutucu Project, is located in the Jurassic Metallogenic Belt in the eastern foothills of the Andes mountain range of southeastern Ecuador.

Aurania's current focus is on exploration for gold, silver and copper in Ecuador in an area that hasn't been explored since Spanish colonial times. Aurania's large, concession block is in the Cordillera de Cutucu which lies along trend of the mineral belt which hosts Ecuador's two modern mines - Fruta del Norte and Mirador. Aurania has identified multiple, drill-ready targets and has been drilling high priority targets since September 2020. The Company will continue scout drilling throughout 2021, directing its efforts on making a gold, silver or copper discovery in those areas.
