On March 5, 2021, the Company received notice of an appeal to the decision by the DMRE granting the Waterberg Mining Right. According to the MPRDA, an appeal can be considered by the Minister of the DMRE for determination within a 130-business day timeframe. Senior Counsel acting for Waterberg JV Co. is preparing a formal rebuttal to the appeal. The Company continues to work in a climate of positive mutual respect with the municipal and local community leadership.

On November 30, 2020, the Company completed sales of an "at-the-market" offering of common shares first announced on September 4, 2020. Outlook

The Company's primary business objective is to advance the palladium dominant Waterberg Project to development and construction. The Company continues to work closely with the DMRE, regional and local communities and their leadership on how the mine can be developed to provide optimal outcomes and best value to all stakeholders.

Detailed engineering in project readiness for construction continues funded by Waterberg JV Resources Pty Ltd. The Waterberg Project engineering team is converting details from a definitive feasibility study ("Waterberg DFS") completed for the Waterberg Project in September 2019 into a formal cost budget estimate with a focus on critical path elements and the first two years of construction. Roads, construction camp, power, water and project commencement are all being detailed and optimized.

The next major milestones for the Company and the Waterberg Project are further detailed work with the host communities in the area of the mine, offtake arrangements and construction financing. The Company is in discussions with several parties regarding the offtake of concentrate and detailed due diligence is underway with multiple parties for construction financing. Technical reviews are well advanced.

The markets for platinum and palladium continue to be strong and prices are well over the Waterberg DFS sensitivity analysis upside case.

The Company's battery technology initiative through Lion with Anglo represents a new opportunity in the high-profile lithium battery research and innovation field. The investment in Lion creates a potential vertical integration with a broader industrial market development strategy to bring new technologies to market which use palladium and platinum. Research and development efforts by FIU on behalf of Lion continue and initial technical milestones have been achieved. Technical results from Lion's research may have application to a majority of lithium ion battery chemistries and the scope of Lion's research work is being expanded.

The Company will continue to follow government health directives in the months ahead and will make the health and safety of employees a priority. The Company plans to drive ahead with its core business objectives while carefully managing costs where possible in this period of market uncertainty. The health and safety of employees is a priority.

As well as the discussions within this press release, the reader is encouraged to also see the Company's disclosure made under the heading "Risk Factors" in the Company's 2020 annual Form 20-F, which was also filed as the Company's Annual Information Form in Canada.
