"Québec holds impressive potential for the discovery, mining, and development of critical and strategic minerals. I am convinced that there is no better place in the world to invest in the mining sector," said Jonatan Julien, Minister of Energy and Natural Resources of the Government of Quebec. "With our many advantages, such as our innovative technologies and renewable electricity, we have everything we need to establish ourselves on the world stage as a reliable partner in the global energy transition. There are business opportunities to be explored here!"

"I am delighted to take part in the Critical and Strategic Minerals Investment Opportunities in Quebec Conference," said Catherine Loubier, Delegate General in New York, Government of Quebec. "Quebec has a deep expertise in mining and a rich one in critical and strategic minerals. The companies taking part in this event are a testimony to that. I'm confident that U.S. investors and partners will gain further appreciation of Quebec's mining industry during the conference. With abundant and affordable hydropower, as well as excellent track records on the environment and in community relations, Quebec is poised to generate considerable interest. We are thankful to our partners OTC Markets, Murdock Capital Partners and TAA Advisory for this remarkable event."
