Registration is Open for The Oil & Gas Conference®, August 15-18, 2021 in Denver, Colorado

DENVER, July 28, 2021 - Institutional investors, portfolio managers, financial analysts, CIOs and other investment community professionals who invest in the energy space should register now for The Oil & Gas Conference® which will take place Aug. 15-18, 2021, at the Denver Downtown Westin hotel.

The event is EnerCom's 26th annual Denver investment conference. At this year's conference, C-level leadership of leading energy companies will present their plans for drilling and completing wells, discuss well results and capital efficiency, and estimate capital expenditures and production for the balance of 2021 and into 2022. The current daily schedule of presenters is posted on the conference website (presenters, days, times are subject to change). EnerCom is adding to the line-up daily.

"We are excited to bring the energy and investment communities together again in Denver this August," said Aaron Vandeford, President of EnerCom. "This year's event will mark our 26th anniversary and will play host to management teams and capital partners from around the globe, all engaged in the important discussion surrounding the future of the energy sector."

Presenting companies represent oil and gas operations in all of North America's shale basins, Latin America's conventional oil plays, the Gulf of Mexico and other international oil and gas plays. The EnerCom conference is a convenient way for portfolio managers and analysts to see approximately 80+ oil and gas companies together at a single venue where informal networking and one-on-one access to company management is part of the conference experience.

A sample of the 80+ companies that are scheduled to present Aug. 15-18, 2021 include:
