TORONTO, Nov. 18, 2021 - African Metals Corp. (the "Company") [TSXV: AFR] announces that it has changed its name to "AFR NuVenture Resources Inc." pursuant to a directors' resolution dated November 3, 2021.

The common shares of the Company will commence trading on the TSX Venture Exchange at the opening of trading on Tuesday, November 23, 2021 under the new name, ISIN number: CA00111F1027 and CUSIP number: 00111F102. The Company is a mineral exploration company which was formerly focused on projects in the Democratic Republic of Congo ("DRC"). As part of its recent restructuring, the Company divested itself of its assets in the DRC.

John F. O'Donnell, Chairman and CEO of the Company stated that "the Company's current mission is to attempt to create a world class mineral exploration company which fosters respect for the environment and a strong dedication to the welfare of our stakeholders. Just as importantly, we are committed to promoting sustainable development in the communities within which we operate, with transparency, integrity, and good faith. We are seeking exceptional projects to explore and develop in favourable mineral jurisdictions which have stable political environments together with modern and predictable mining legislation. Notwithstanding our history and focus on the mineral exploration industry, we are not averse to looking at potential projects in other sectors which could offer superior opportunities to create shareholder value. The reason for the name change is to reflect our new broader and more global mission statement while maintaining our historical ties to the old name and trading symbol."

The Company is developing a website under the new name, and it is expected that it will be operating this month. Further particulars will be announced when the website is fully functional.

The capitalization of the Company consists of an unlimited number of common shares with no par value of which 18,038,681 shares are issued and outstanding. There are also issued and outstanding incentive stock options to acquire up to a further 1,800,000 shares of the Company.

On behalf of the Board of Directors,

"John F. O'Donnell"

John F. O'Donnell, Chairman and CEO
