Cautionary Note Regarding Forward-Looking Statements

This document may contain "forward looking information" within the meaning of Canadian securities legislation and "forward-looking statements" within the meaning of the United States Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995 (the "Act") ("forward-looking statements"). These forward-looking statements are made as of the date of this document and Copper Mountain does not intend, and does not assume any obligation, to update these forward-looking statements, whether as a result of new information, future events or otherwise, except as required under applicable securities legislation.

All statements, other than statements of historical facts, are forward-looking statements. Generally, forward-looking statements relate to future events or future performance and reflect our expectations or beliefs regarding future events.

In certain circumstances, forward-looking statements can be identified, but are not limited to, statements which use terms such as "plans", "expects", "estimates", "intends", "anticipates", "believes", "forecasts", "guidance", "scheduled", "target", "may", "could", "would", "might", "occurs", "achieved" or the negative of these terms or comparable terminology. In this document, certain forward-looking statements are identified including, production and cost guidance, anticipated production at the Copper Mountain Mine, expectations regarding the impact of the COVID-19 pandemic on operations, financial condition and prospects, anticipated metals prices and the sensitivity of the Company's financial performance to metals prices, events that may affect its operations and development, anticipated cash flows from operations and related liquidity requirements, the anticipated effect of external factors on results as commodity prices, estimation of mineral reserves and resources, mine life projections, reclamation costs, economic conditions, government regulation of mining operations, and business and acquisition strategies. Forward-looking statements involve risks and unknown risks, uncertainties and other factors that could cause actual results, performance, achievements and opportunities to differ materially from those implied by such forward-looking statements. Factors that could cause actual results to differ from these forward-looking statements include, among others, the successful exploration of the Company's properties in British Columbia and Australia, market price, continued availability of capital and financing and general economic, market or business conditions, reliability of the historical data referenced in this document and risks set out in Copper Mountain's public documents, including each management discussion and analysis, filed on SEDAR at www.sedar.com. The potential effects of the COVID-19 pandemic on Copper Mountain's business and operations are unknown at this time, including Copper Mountain's ability to manage and restrictions arising from COVID-19 in the communities in which Copper Mountain operates and its ability to continue to operate and to safely return the business to normal operations. The impact of COVID-19 is dependent on a number of factors outside of the Company's control and knowledge, including the effectiveness of the measures taken by public health and governmental authorities to combat the spread of the disease, global economic uncertainties and outlook due to the disease.

the evolving restrictions relating to mining activities and to travel in certain jurisdictions in which Copper Mountain operates. Although Copper Mountain has attempted to identify important factors that could cause our actual results, performance achievements and opportunities to differ materially from those described in our forward looking statements, there may be factors that cause our results, performance, achievements and opportunities not to be as anticipated, estimated or intended. We believe that the information and assumptions used in preparing the forward-looking statements are reasonable, and we should not be placed on these statements, which only apply as of the date of this news release, and no assurance can be given that such events will occur in the disclosed time frames or at all. Accordingly, readers should not place undue reliance on our forward-looking statements.
