PERTH, Dec. 7, 2021 - Ironbark Zinc Ltd. (ASX: IBG) (Ironbark or the Company) advises that its Phase I due diligence with US EXIM Bank has now successfully concluded and that Ironbark has received a Preliminary Project Letter (PPL) EXIM's intention, subject to further due diligence and EXIM Board approval, to extend up to US$657m in debt funding t to cornerstone the development of the Citronen Project.

Ironbark Managing Director, Michael Jardine, commented:

"We are delighted to announce this US EXIM PPL, which marks a genuine turning point in the life of the Citronen Proje proper recognition of the scale and quality of the asset from the capital markets for arguably the first time. We could not better prospective cornerstone than US EXIM; they will be an excellent partner for Ironbark and its stakeholders as we forward into what will be another busy 12 months. The interest from a top tier financial institution further validates Citror as a Tier 1 Zinc project and is a testament to the strong fundamentals offered by Citronen, as the Company moves clos becoming a strategic Zinc producer.

We have seen in the last six months, since Ironbark updated its BFS, a substantial shift in perception with respect to Zi role it will play in the future. Now officially a USGS Critical Mineral, the physical Zinc market has also shown a formerly underappreciated tightness and we have seen the price respond in a reasonably sustained fashion in recent months. A factors are flashing green when considering what a very long-life asset such as Citronen potentially offers the market.

We look forward to updating the market on our progress throughout the first half of 2022, as we finalise our project fina package."

Preliminary Project Letter

During the recently completed Phase I DD process EXIM Bank worked with Washington based Greengate LLC, an indefinancial advisory firm, to assess Ironbark's application in relation to the development of the Citronen Zinc Project. EXIM this initial DD process to filter and consider opportunities, and successful passage through Phase I is a pre-requisite for final approval from the EXIM Bank Board.

During the Phase 1 DD process, US EXIM and its advisers undertook considerable DD on Citronen following Ironbark's application, submitted in August 2021. While not yet a binding offer of credit, the PPL signals US EXIM's intent to unde serious consideration of the funding application and provides project sponsors with a process and issues list to resolve formal loan offer. It is a welcome endorsement of the fundamentals of the Citronen Zinc Project for a world projected to increasingly consume more Zinc metal as the transition to carbon neutrality gains further traction globally. Given the quidebt funding potentially being made available by US EXIM, no additional project debt funding is anticipated if the EXIM successfully closed on the terms outlined in the PPL.

In addition to signalling US EXIM's intention to proceed with the transaction, and tabling an indicative Term Sheet, the provides Ironbark with guidance on key issues for Phase 2 DD, including completing further financial, technical, environ legal reviews as determined by EXIM Bank (including finalisation of construction arrangements).

For the completed Phase 1 process, and the upcoming Phase 2 work, Ironbark was advised by Bacchus Capital, Latha Watkins LLP and US EXIM specialist advisors Horn & Watson and International Trade & Transportation Inc.

Next Steps & EXIM Timeline

Phase 2 DD, commencing in early 2022, will be focused on addressing the points raised by US EXIM in the PPL. Furth information will be provided on the key steps and timing of that process, including the means to obtain US EXIM Board and subsequent drawdown, when confirmed between the parties.

Impact of the PPL on the Strategic Equity Process

Ironbark has commenced a targeted process led by its strategic financial advisers, London based Bacchus Capital, to it consider prospective equity investors. Initially, the net has been cast globally and is expected to involve a range of interparties drawn from the fields of base metals mining, refining & trading, and financial investment. The progress made with US EXIM funding outlined in this announcement provides the necessary pathway to address one of the primary obstact advancing any new project development - access to project debt funding on attractive terms, which is set to boost equite The Citronen Zinc Project, with its initial 20-year mine life, its potential to rank as a top 10 global Zinc producer, and not advanced pathway to securing project financing, is expected to attract widespread interest from a range of participants participate in its development.

With the PPL now issued and providing visibility on the attractiveness of the proposed project debt package on offer, the equity process will now begin. It is anticipated to run largely in parallel with the Phase 2 due diligence program, possibly concluding until a complete project financing package is agreed between all debt and equity investors.
