We are happy to provide U.S. investors with an easier platform to invest in our company," said Michael Staresinic, CEO, of Three Valley Copper.

The Company previously applied for its common shares to be eligible for electronic clearing and settlement in the United States through the Depository Trust Company ("DTC"). Once approved, the Company's common shares will be able to be transferred electronically between United States brokerage firms and eliminate physical stock certificates. It is expected that such approval will be received in the coming weeks.
