

Murphy Oil Corporation Announces Retirement of David R. Looney, Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer, Board of Directors Elects Thomas J. Mireles as Replacement

09.03.2022 | Business Wire

Murphy Oil Corp. (NYSE: MUR) today announced that David R. Looney plans to retire from the company and will relinquish his position as Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer on June 30, 2022. The Board of Directors has elected Thomas J. "Tom" Mireles to serve as his replacement effective upon Mr. Looney's retirement. Mr. Mireles will assume Mr. Looney's responsibilities, as well as maintain oversight of the company's sustainability function.

Mr. Looney joined Murphy in 2018, and will conclude his 38-year financial career by modernizing Murphy's financial function, as well as leading efforts to strengthen the balance sheet following the global pandemic.

Joining the company in 2005, Mr. Mireles has a proven track record with Murphy as he earned roles with increasing responsibility culminating in his most recent position as Senior Vice President, Technical Services. While working at the company, Mr. Mireles has gained extensive experience in managing multiple disciplines, including Senior Manager Planning and Business Development, as well as gaining significant operational experience serving as a senior vice president in both the Western and Eastern Hemispheres. Prior to Murphy, he started his career in 1996 as a petroleum engineer for a major integrated energy company. Mr. Mireles received bachelor's and master's degrees in petroleum engineering from Texas A&M University and a Master of Business Administration from the London Business School. In addition, he completed the following executive programs through Harvard Business School: Advanced Management Program, High Potentials Leadership Program, and Succeeding as a Strategic Chief Financial Officer.

"As a key member of the executive team, we want to recognize and thank David for his significant contributions during a transformative time in our company, and wish him all the best on his pending retirement," stated Roger W. Jenkins, President and Chief Executive Officer. "In addition, we want to acknowledge that Tom's outstanding leadership skills and in-depth knowledge about Murphy, financial operations and sustainability position him to be successful with his new responsibilities, and I want to congratulate him on his new role. As we look to the future, Tom and his team will continue with Murphy's ongoing commitment to sustainability efforts, as well as fulfill Murphy's commitment to delever, execute and explore."
