

Topaz Announces Strategic Acquisition Of Additional Peace River And Deep Basin Royalty Assets And Increased 2022 Guidance

27.07.2022 | CNW

CALGARY, July 27, 2022 - Topaz Energy Corp. (TSX: TPZ) ("Topaz" or the "Company") is pleased to announce that in furtherance of its acquisition growth strategy, it has entered into definitive agreements with Tourmaline Oil Corp. ("Tourmaline") for the purchase of newly created gross overriding royalty interests on approximately 0.2 million gross acres of developed and undeveloped land in the Peace River and Deep Basin play areas of Alberta, for total cash consideration of $52.0 million ("Strategic Acquisition"). The Strategic Acquisition is expected to close in September 2022, subject to satisfaction of customary closing conditions including Tourmaline completing a recently announced corporate acquisition. In light of the acquisition and expanded capital development plans by certain of Topaz's strategic partners, Topaz has increased its 2022 guidance as follows:

Strategic Acquisition

- Tourmaline is the largest and amongst the most active operators in the Peace River and Deep Basin. Topaz currently owns gross overriding royalty interests on nearly all of Tourmaline's existing Peace River and Deep Basin acreage; the Strategic Acquisition increases Topaz's royalty acreage in these areas by 7% with opportunistic, contiguous acreage and provides for strategic alignment in the deployment of Tourmaline's annual capital investment.
- Tourmaline's assets to be acquired in Peace River provide complementary processing and transportation infrastructure, enabling pooling of prospective lands; enabling increased takeaway capacity and facilitation of longer horizontal lateral lengths to enhance economic performance.
- The Deep Basin is a core asset within Topaz's existing portfolio. Topaz currently owns royalty interests in 2.2 million acres in the Deep Basin (38% of total acreage), which provide low-risk development and well-established egress infrastructure, including three natural gas processing facilities in which Topaz holds joint ownership with Tourmaline. The Deep Basin acreage to be acquired by Topaz adds a combination of new and increased working interest in existing royalty interests which were acquired by Tourmaline through swaps, acquisitions and crown land sales over the past year.
- Pursuant to the Strategic Acquisition, Topaz will acquire a 3% gross overriding royalty interest on natural gas production and a 2.5% gross overriding royalty interest on crude oil and condensate production, which is expected to provide meaningful expansion of drilling location inventory on the Company's royalty lands.
- Based on realized commodity prices and average production of 323 boe/d⁽⁶⁾ for the five months ended May 31, 2022, the Strategic Acquisition would have generated $7.0 million in annualized royalty production revenue to Topaz, had the acquisition been in place January 1, 2022. Topaz estimates that the Strategic Acquisition will generate royalty production revenue of $7.0 to $9.0 million in 2023^(2,4), and free cash flow⁽¹⁾ growth on a per share basis.
- Tourmaline plans to fund a portion of its recently announced corporate acquisition with six million Topaz shares, which will reduce Tourmaline's ownership in Topaz to 31.4%. The reduction in Tourmaline-held shares will expand Topaz's share float and provide new and existing shareholders with enhanced trading liquidity which is in-line with Topaz's strategic objectives.

Increased 2022 Guidance Estimates

Topaz has increased its 2022 guidance estimates to incorporate the Strategic Acquisition (effective September 2022) and expanded capital development plans by certain of Topaz's strategic partners, resulting in estimated 2022 annual average production between 16,650 and 16,850 boe/d. Based on commodity pricing of $5.00/mcf AECO and US$90/bbl WTI for the remainder of the year, Topaz's estimated 2022 EBITDA⁽¹⁾ range has increased to $345.0 to $347.0 million. After payment of estimated dividends of $154.0 million (45% payout ratio⁽¹⁾), Topaz expects to generate $174.0 to $178.0 million of Excess Cash Flow⁽¹⁾ exiting 2022 with net debt⁽¹⁾ estimated to range between $114.0 and $118.0 million, before giving effect to incremental acquisitions.
