Investors who purchased the Company's securities between April 19, 2021 and May 15, 2023, inclusive (the "Class Period"), are encouraged to contact the firm before September 20, 2023.

The class, in this case, has not yet been certified, and until certification occurs, you are not represented by an attorney. If you choose to take no action, you can remain an absent class member.

According to the Complaint, the Company made false and misleading statements to the market. Sea overstated its ability to grow profitability while managing growth of its loan book and user base. The Company's expansion of its user base put it at risk of higher credit losses. The Company was likely to book a large increase in loan loss reserves. Based on these facts, the Company's public statements were false and materially misleading throughout the class period. When the market learned the truth about Sea, investors suffered damages.

Join the case to recover your losses.
