To avoid holding Noble shares (in the form share entitlements currently tradeable on NASDAQ, the "Danish Shares") that are not tradeable on a registered market following the effective date of the delisting, holders of Danish Shares currently have the following options:

- Transfer. Shareholders may transfer their Danish Shares currently trading on NASDAQ to Noble shares trading on NYSE. Shareholders may contact their broker to arrange for transfer. Any transfer, brokerage or holding fees are the responsibility of the shareholder.
- Sell. Shareholders may sell their Danish Shares on NASDAQ prior to the effective date of the delisting.

Noble has not filed, and has not yet determined when it will file, a formal delisting request with NASDAQ. Additional information, including details regarding the practicalities of final transfers and tax treatment, will be provided after Noble submits its formal delisting request.
