Selected cash flow items

DNO's share of crude oil from the Tawke license during the quarter has been sold to local buyers as the Iraq-Türkiye Pipeline remained closed. Payments are deposited directly into DNO's international bank accounts in advance of loadings.

Operational cash flow in Q2 2024 will be positively impacted by net working capital movements of USD 62 million, driven by trade payables, prepayments from customers and sales/lifting arrangements for the Tawke license.

In the second quarter, DNO paid a dividend of NOK 0.25 per share (totaling USD 23.0 million). The Company had no tax payments or refunds during the quarter.

Also during the quarter, DNO completed the private placement of USD 400 million of five-year senior unsecured bonds with a coupon rate of 9.25 percent. In connection with the bond placement, the Company redeemed USD 50 million in nominal value of the existing DNO04 bond. Outstanding loan amount for DNO04 after the redemption is USD 350 million.

Other items and information

DNO participated in one exploration well in the Norwegian North Sea in the quarter. The Cuvette well in PL248F/PL248GS (20 percent interest) was spudded on 28 April and completed on 15 June and resulted in a discovery with estimated gross recoverable resources of 16-38 million barrels of oil equivalent.

Other drilling activities during the quarter included the B-3 well in Kurdistan at the operated Baeshiqa license, which was spud on 21 February and continued throughout Q2 2024.

The acquisition of a 25 percent interest in the Arran field on the UK Continental Shelf announced in February was completed on 15 May. Consideration paid upon completion was approximately USD 60 million and the acquired asset will contribute to reported production and financial results from completion date.

In May, DNO announced an agreement to acquire stakes in five oil and gas fields in the Norne area in the Norwegian Sea from Vår Energi ASA. This transaction is expected to close in the third quarter of 2024 so it will not impact the Q2 2024 results.
