VANCOUVER, Oct. 04, 2024 - Teck Resources Ltd. (TSX: TECK.A and TECK.B, NYSE: TECK) ("Teck") today announced the appointment of Lyndon Arnall as Executive Vice President and Chief Legal and Sustainability Officer, effective November 1, 2024. Mr. Arnall will succeed Charlene Ripley, who has confirmed her intention to retire at the end of this year.

"Lyndon brings to this role extensive experience in corporate law in the mining sector and beyond, as well as experience and a strong commitment to environmentally and socially responsible resource development," said Jonathan Price, President and CEO. "I want to thank Charlene for her important contributions to Teck to strengthen our corporate legal service delivery and operations as part of her long and distinguished career, and wish her the best in her retirement."

Mr. Arnall joins Teck from BHP, where he served for 12 years, most recently as Group General Counsel. Previously he had held a number of senior legal positions with BHP, as well as strategic and legal roles with Infosys, Musanada, Barclays, Hewlett-Packard and IBM.

As EVP and Chief Legal and Sustainability Officer, Mr. Arnall will be responsible for maintaining Teck's leading sustainability performance, and supporting the business through legal, risk and compliance functions. He brings to the role 27 years of experience in corporate commercial, technology and resources law, and international experience from working in Singapore, the United States, Australia, Switzerland, the United Kingdom, the UAE, South Africa and Egypt. He holds a BA in Jurisprudence from the University of Oxford.
