

Amaroq Minerals Ltd.: Appointment of Head of Business Development and Corporate Affairs

21.01.2025 | GlobeNewswire

Reykjavik, Jan. 21, 2025 - Amaroq Minerals Ltd. (AIM, TSXV, NASDAQ Iceland: AMRQ), an independent mining company with a substantial land package of gold and strategic mineral assets in Southern Greenland, is pleased to announce the appointment of Edward Westropp as Head of Business Development and Corporate Affairs and a member of the Company's Executive Team.

Edward Westropp has over 20 years of experience in Mining and Natural Resources. Most recently, as Head of IR and Communications at WE Soda Ltd. Edward was previously VP of Investor Relations & Communications at Lundin Energy SA, until its sale to AkerBP ASA in 2022. Prior to this, Edward led the EMEA Energy & Natural Resources team at FTI Consulting. He joins Amaroq with effect from 24 March 2025.

Eldur Olafsson, Amaroq CEO, commented:

"I am delighted to welcome Edward to the Amaroq team, he has a strong track record in energy and natural resources, more recently with the Lundin Group and currently with WE Soda Ltd, the world's largest natural soda ash miner. With commercial production now underway at our Nalunaq mine in Greenland, Edward will play a key role, working with me and the rest of the Executive Team, in capitalising on the growth opportunities available to us, as we focus our efforts in growing our mining presence, energy infrastructure and services business in order to execute on our strategy of becoming a sustainable, full cycle mining enterprise."

Edward Westropp, Head of Business Development and Corporate Affairs, commented:

"It is a very exciting time to be joining the team at Amaroq. The Company is poised for growth, having established a firm platform in Greenland from which it can leverage its position as one of the most active greenfield explorers and developers in Europe."
