Vancouver, April 15, 2025 - CanCambria Energy Corp. (TSXV: CCEC) (FSE: 4JH) ("CanCambria" or the "Company") today announced the appointment of Eric Vaughan as Vice President of Drilling and Completions, effective immediately. In this role, Mr. Vaughan will lead the operations and execution team for the Company's flagship Kiskunhalas project in Southern Hungary.

With over 40 years of international experience in the oil and gas sector, Mr. Vaughan brings a proven track record of operational excellence across the full lifecycle of well design and execution. He has held senior management positions with both service companies and operating companies, contributing to projects at all stages. Mr. Vaughan's extensive experience in European exploration and production includes high-pressure, high-temperature (HPHT) drilling and completion operations, complemented by a strong focus on cost management and safety protocols. His experience and leadership are expected to provide significant value to the Company as it advances its Kiskunhalas project.

"We are thrilled to welcome Eric to the leadership team," said Dr. Paul Clarke, President and CEO. "His deep industry knowledge and hands-on operational skillset, developed over four decades, will be instrumental in delivering our vision to unlock the full potential of our deep-basin tight-gas project through the drill-bit."

In addition, CanCambria also announces the retirement of the Company's Corporate Secretary, Margo Peters, who has served in the role since the Company's inception in 2017. Over her tenure, Ms. Peters has been an integral part of the Company's growth.

"On behalf of the entire CanCambria team, I extend gratitude to Margo for her exemplary service," said Dr. Chris Cornelius, Founder and Executive Chairman. "We wish her all the very best in her retirement."

Paulette Pears will succeed Ms. Peters as the new Corporate Secretary, reporting to the CEO, effective immediately.
