Lorelee Johnstone - Hecla's Director of Indigenous Affairs and Canadian Community Relations

The Coronation Medal is a national honor awarded to individuals who have demonstrated exceptional leadership, service and dedication to their communities.

"We at Hecla are immensely proud of Lorelee for receiving the prestigious King Charles III Coronation Medal. This honor recognizes Lorelee's commitment to responsible and sustainable mining practices in the Yukon. Her work exemplifies the values we strive for, and this recognition from the Crown is truly well deserved. Lorelee's achievements strengthen our commitment to being responsible stewards of both the environment and the communities where we operate," said Rob Krmarov, President and CEO.

"It is a tremendous honor to be recognized with such incredible individuals who contribute selflessly to make our territory and country a better place. It is also a privilege to work for a company that embodies and supports my personal contributions to sustainability and continuous improvement in our industry," added Lorelee Johnstone on receiving the medal.
