

Rottenstone Gold Inc. Corporate Update

11.08.2025 | The Newswire

Rottenstone Gold Inc. - CSE:SK - ("Rottenstone Gold" or the "Corporation" or the "Issuer") provides a corporate update.

Rottenstone Project Update

The Issuer has evaluated recent public announcement by Ramp Metals Inc. pertaining to certain follow-up results at their Rottenstone SW Project (see Ramp Metals Inc. news release, Ramp Metals Confirms VMS Discovery at Rush Target, dated August 5, 2025). The Corporation notes that volcanogenic massive sulfide (VMS) deposits are often formed in clusters within a regional area, and Rottenstone Gold holds a material share of the claim licenses in the broader area near Ramp Metals Inc.'s Rush Target (see Figure 1):

The Corporation is also monitoring the subsequent market response involving Ramp Metals Inc.'s equity price following their aforementioned news release (same being dated August 5, 2025), preliminary evaluation of which is interpreted by the Issuer as generally being less constructive to capital inflows to the Rottenstone Domain from a gold exploration perspective but prospectively conducive towards copper exploration by way of the Issuer's substantial regional control of disposition licenses in area related to the northwest corner of its Rottenstone Project (see Figure 1 above), including as relates to any potential VMS cluster that may emerge, noting again the context that VMS deposits may occur within a clustered (or regional) setting. The Issuer is currently a large disposition holder in the Rottenstone Domain and its surrounding area.

Subsidiary Development

The Corporation also reports that effective August 8, 2025, it has acquired Silver Royalties Corp., with a view to evaluating silver-related opportunities. As a result, Rottenstone Gold owns 100% of Silver Royalties Corp., with said entity now being a subsidiary of the Issuer.

The Issuer reimbursed a Control Person of the Issuer for the Incorporator's sole common share of Silver Royalties Corp. through a purchase-and-sale agreement, at a prescribed $1.00 sum. Silver Royalties Corp. does not presently have any material assets nor any liabilities.

The Issuer anticipates that it will launch a branded website for its new wholly owned subsidiary to be located at www.SilverRoyalties.com in due course.
