Vancouver, September 24, 2025 - Cruz Battery Metals Corp. (CSE: CRUZ) (OTCID: BKTPF) (WKN: A40YSN) ("Cruz" or the "Company") is pleased to announce that the company has renewed all of its lithium claims in Nevada, including the Solar Lithium Project, strategically located directly adjacent to the TLC Lithium Project operated by American Lithium Corp. (LI, AMLIF) and Cruz's Clayton Valley lithium brine projects located directly inside of Schlumberger's (SLB) lithium deposit. James Nelson, President of Cruz Battery Metals, stated, "President Trump's endorsement of the Thacker Pass project is a strong vote of confidence for the entire Nevada lithium sector. We believe this could mark a turning point in investor sentiment toward U.S.-based lithium companies. With demand rapidly growing due to advancements in self-driving vehicles and robotics, Cruz is well-positioned at the early stages of what we believe is a renewed focus on Nevada's lithium assets. We are confident this is just the first inning of a major cycle for the sector."

Cruz remains committed to advancing its lithium assets at a time when a U.S. domestic supply is becoming increasingly strategic and globally relevant.
