This report is Steppe Gold's third annual sustainability publication and first integrated report following the acquisition of Boroo Gold LLC in 2024.

The full report is available on Steppe Gold's website at <https://steppegold.com/sustainability/>.

Steppe Gold's Chairman and CEO, Bataa Tumur-Ochir, noted, "The last year was marked by the successful acquisition and integration of Mongolia's leading gold producer, Boroo Gold, advancing our transformation into a mid-tier, multi-asset gold producer. This has brought us strong operating and technical expertise, creating the opportunity to improve best practices across the operational sites, further strengthening our commitment to health and safety as top priorities. Since 2022, we have implemented Ugai Soyol, a three-year multi-media project that reflects our dedication to cultural preservation by supporting the Buryat community of Tsagaan-Ovoo Soum, home to the ATO Mine. Moving forward, our operating teams will uphold transparency, environmental stewardship, and strong community partnership to create lasting value for all stakeholders."
