Disclaimer for Forward-Looking Information

This news release contains forward-looking statements within the meaning of applicable securities laws. Forward-looking statements are based on the expectations, estimates, and projections of management at the time the statements are made and are not guarantees of future performance. In this news release, such statements include, but are not limited to, those concerning the Company's engagement of bullVestor, the duration and scope of the marketing campaign, the anticipated outcomes of such marketing efforts, and the expected impact on the Company's visibility within the European investment community. Forward-looking statements also relate to the Company's broader strategic objectives, including advancing its exploration activities, developing proprietary battery technologies, and participating in the circular battery economy through material recovery and battery lifespan extension initiatives. These statements reflect management's current beliefs and are based on assumptions that the marketing services will be delivered as agreed, that they will positively influence investor awareness, and that the Company will be able to execute on its broader operational goals. Such statements are inherently subject to a variety of risks and uncertainties, including but not limited to: the effectiveness and reach of marketing efforts; the possibility that such campaigns may not achieve the intended results; fluctuations in capital markets; regulatory developments; operational risks associated with exploration and technology development; and reliance on third-party service providers. Accordingly, actual events or results may differ materially from those projected in the forward-looking statements. Readers are cautioned not to place undue reliance on these forward-looking statements. The Company undertakes no obligation to revise or update any forward-looking information except as required by law.
