The West Gabal El Dehies Concession is 15.45 square kilometres located 190 kilometres by road from Aswan. There has been a long history of artisanal mining in this area dating back to the times of the Pharaohs. Geological mapping has been completed over the West Gabal El Dehies Concession using remote sensed data plus extensive ground truthing and surface mapping. The gold in the Concession is primarily orogenic gold hosted in quartz veins and associated alteration zones. During 2025 there was artisanal mining being conducted on the Concession, the Partnership intends to review the artisanal mining operation to determine how best to expand operations and conduct further exploration within the Concession.

The Agreement is considered a related-party transaction pursuant to Multilateral Instrument 61-101, as the Company's CEO, Maki Petkovski, is a director and officer of Nexgold. The Agreement is exempt from the need to obtain minority shareholder approval and a formal valuation as required by and under applicable provisions of MI 61-101 as each party will share pro rata in the Partnership.

"This agreement represents a turning point in the history of Golden Goliath as it will bring forward gold production for the first time in the history of the Company," said Mr. Sorbara, the Chairman of the Board at Golden Goliath. "It is the culmination of our new strategy introduced to Golden Goliath by our CEO Mr. Petkovski last year, which aims to expand our interests into a highly prospective gold producing province within a competitive production cost environment."
