

Chevron Updates Stockholders at Annual Meeting

16:50 Uhr | Business Wire

Chevron Corp. (NYSE: CVX) today provided an overview of the company's business performance and plans at its Annual Meeting of Stockholders. The meeting highlighted the company's strong performance and consistent strategy, with stockholders showing their support by voting in favor of the full slate of Directors and with the company's recommendations on all matters to be voted upon.

"Recent events remind us of the importance of energy," said Mike Wirth, Chevron's chairman and chief executive officer. "Oil and natural gas remain vital to people, economies, and global energy security. While the future is uncertain, our actions are not. Our strategy remains consistent: leverage our strengths to safely deliver lower carbon energy to a growing world."

Stockholders voted on six items. As reported during the meeting, the preliminary report of the Inspector of Elections was as follows:

- Item 1: An average of 97% of the votes cast were voted for the 12 nominees for election to the Board of Directors.
- Item 2: Approximately 96% of the votes cast were voted for the ratification of the appointment of PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP as the company's independent registered public accounting firm for 2026.
- Item 3: Approximately 97% of the votes cast were voted in support of named executive officer compensation.
- Item 4: Approximately 15% of the votes cast were voted in support of the proposal regarding an independent chair.
- Item 5: Approximately 9% of the votes cast were voted in support of the proposal to publish a report on Indigenous Peoples' rights.
- Item 6: Approximately 9% of the votes cast were voted in support of the proposal to commission a third-party report on human rights processes.

Over 1.6 billion shares were represented at this meeting - or approximately 85% of Chevron's outstanding common stock were present by proxy.

Final voting results on all agenda items will be posted at www.chevron.com after they have been reported on a Form 8-K, which will be filed with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission. Specific information about the proposals presented before Chevron stockholders at the 2026 Annual Meeting of Stockholders may be found in the 2026 Proxy Statement, which is available in the "Investors" section of the company's website under "Corporate Governance."
