Manila, June 19, 2026 - St. Augustine Gold and Copper Ltd. (TSX: SAU) ("St. Augustine" or the "Company") announces the appointment of ELD SG and Eldorado Partners ("ELD"), a Singapore-headquartered corporate finance and advisory practice, to serve as financial advisor in connection with financing and strategic initiatives related to the development of the Kingking Copper-Gold project (the "Kingking Project") in the Philippines.

ELD will provide strategic advisory support to the Company as it evaluates various financing alternatives and strategic options to advance the Kingking Project. The firm brings established experience in capital raising and financing solutions across the natural resources sector and other industries.

ELD is an independent advisory and principal-investment house. The firm operates at the intersection of finance, geopolitics and industrial strategy, working at senior level on cross-border M&A, structured and project finance in energy, metals (including critical-minerals) and commodity mandates, ELD combines deep capital markets structuring with on the ground access taking selective principal positions alongside its advisory work.

This appointment reflects the Company's ongoing commitment to securing appropriate financing solutions that will support project development while maximizing long-term value for shareholders.

The Company expects to engage ELD immediately to begin work on evaluating financing structures and strategic alternatives suited to the project's development requirements.
